

NORDLAND KUNST- OG FILMSKOLE

Admission 2019 Bachelorsdegree in Moving Images

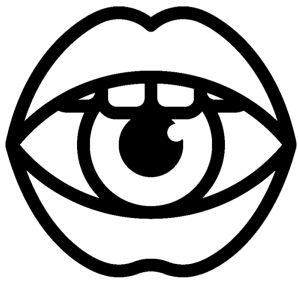

Admissions procedures are divided into two rounds. During summer 2017 Nordland kunst- and filmfagskole received accreditation from The Norwegian Agency for quality Assurance in Education to run the Bachelor programme in Moving Images. Deadline for sending in the submitted material and documentation is the 15th of April 2019.

Round I consist of submitted material:

1. Filled-out application form. See the additional pdf marked "application form"
2. A text containing reflections on the submitted works, why you want to study at NKFS, and what you want to do research on during your studies. 800-1,000 words.
3. Independently produced works, consecutively numbered. These can consist of:
 - Film: One main work (max. 15 min.) and up to two additional works (the admissions board reserves the right to view only the first five minutes of additional works).
 - Video documentation of an exhibition/installation/performance. Combined video material cannot exceed 20 minutes.
 - Additional works can also be photographs/paintings (max. 10) and/or a manuscript (max. 15 pages).
4. Curriculum Vitae, which includes a picture of yourself.
5. Notarized copies of relevant certificates and diplomas.

Tel. (+47) 76 06 63 60

E-mail: post.nkfs@nfk.no

NORDLAND KUNST- OG FILMSKOLE

Round II

The admissions board makes its decisions based on the submitted material. Selected applicants are invited to the school to take practical tests and for a personal interview. (Tests are in advance of the interview.) Testing is scheduled in June.

The admissions board evaluates the applicant's

- Motivation
- Independence
- Artistic potential
- Reflective and analytical ability

How to send your application:

1. Send your application via email to opptak@lofotenkunstfilm.no within the 15th of April 2019.
2. Texts shall be in PDF format, pictures in JPG format. Films and videomaterial must be attached as vimeo links.

I confirm that the works are created by me, and that the enclosed information is correct:

Date, Place, Signature

Tel. (+47) 76 06 63 60

E-mail: post.nkfs@nfk.no